FLAGSHIP KEYNOTE

INTELLIGENCE IS THE NEW PURPOSE: CONSCIOUSNESS SHIFTS SHAPING THE NEXT ORGANIZING PRINCIPLES OF REALITY

This talk explores a consciousness shift underway, where intelligence, rather than purpose, emerges as the organizing principle shaping how reality is perceived and futures are formed. Stephanie presents intelligence as an inner compass and living information guiding perception, meaning-making, storytelling, and how we innovate the future into being. This keynote may include a brief, facilitated guided visualization to support embodied insight and activation.

ABOUT STEPHANIE

Stephanie Trager is a conscious futurist, systems thinker, and strategic advisor working with visionary leaders and stewards of influence shaping what's next. With over 30 years of multidisciplinary experience, she works at the intersection of ancient and future intelligence, supporting ethical decision-making, expanded perception, and evolutionary human potential.

An attorney with a background in human rights, environmental justice, and corporate litigation, Stephanie brings rigorous analytical depth to questions of ethics, governance, and responsibility, reflecting decades of immersion in shamanic and wisdom traditions.

Her counsel spans Fortune 100 leaders, impact investors, family offices, founders, and next-generation inheritors navigating complexity, innovation, leadership and personal growth. Stephanie is an Earthkeeper, serves on the board of Dream Change, hosts the Catalyst Talks podcast, and is authoring a book on perception and future intelligence.
